

AGENDA for MARINE INTERESTS GROUP of SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY
THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 2005, MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM, COMMUNITY CENTER
1001 KENNEDY WAY, MORRO BAY

2:00 - 5:00 p.m., Screening of Videos

1. 2:00 - 3:00 p.m., "Coastal Clash", a documentary aired on KQED in November 1994, about the struggle for coastal access in California.

2. 3:00 - 5:00 p.m., Selections from the Bevan Series on Sustainable Fisheries, diverse views from a seminar held at the University of Washington in Seattle, April 29-30, 2004. (Marla Morrissey attended the conference and thought the following selections provide a spectrum of views of interest to the Working Committee members and the public.)
 - a. "Who Owns the Fish?", Andre Punt, Associate Professor, School of Aquatic & Fishery Sciences (20 minutes)
 - b. "Purging the Frontier from Our Mind: Rescuing Fisheries Policy from Incoherence," Daniel Bromley, Professor of Applied Economics, University of Wisconsin (30 minutes)
 - c. "Rights-Based Fishery Management: Some Developing Country Experience," Les Clark, Ray Research (40 minutes)

5:00 – 7:30 P.M., Working Committee Meeting

1. Introduction of Working Committee Members & Brief Updates

[2 minute update per member about news and activities. Please confirm or add to list of alternates at the end of this email.]

2. Letters and Other Communications

[comments on solicitation of nominations for the Central Coast Regional Stakeholder Group(s) for MLPA process, due April 25]

3. Review of Topics Selected for Discussion

- a. Overview of Ocean Observing System -- Stephanie Watson, Coordinator (15 minutes)
- b. Collaborative Research
 - * Pelagic Bird Survey (20 minutes)
 - * Sand Crab Pollution Measure (5 minutes)
 - * Cabezon Tagging Project (25-30 minutes)
 - * Rockfish Recruitment Project (20 minutes)
 - * Rockfish Adult Populations (30-45 minutes)

4. Selection of Topics for Discussion at Next Meeting(s)

5. Update on Collaborative Contributions

- a. Status of Proposal for Ecosystem-Based Management Project

6. Funding Needs

- a. Funding Prospects and Updates (Wendt and others)

7. Next Meeting Date and Location

[bring your calendars]

8. Other Items for Discussion